We have a signed agreement. That is what we will agree to in terms of this engagement. This is the very last email on this topic. Your clients delay is just beyond acceptable at this stage. If we do not have our invoices submitted by agreement by Monday, we are absolutely done and will file the previously drafted lawsuit. We are exhausted with these antics. I will assume you disagree so no need to rhetoric in response. Monday is a hard deadline.

CAUTION: Email from external account

Thank you, Jon. Please confirm your understanding of the agreement between the parties with respect to Judge Carpinello's duties, as previously requested below:

*We are aligned in our understanding of the agreement, i.e. if an invoice is not approved by Judge Carpinello, Wayfarer is not obligated to pay it. JAMS felt the language was not sufficient in terms of instructing Judge Carpinello and giving him the authority to approve in-part and reject in-part according to his judgement. I think putting that in an email with instructions from both parties should suffice. Please confirm.

Also, please confirm you will accept service of process on behalf of your client.

Reserving all rights.

Dear Mr. Cuervos:

We returned an executed copy of the JAMS engagement agreement to Ms. Ahouraian a couple of weeks ago, but we are not sure if she provided a copy of that to JAMS – please see attached. Please let us know if there is any other information you need from Ms. Ferrer's side to move the engagement forward. We look forward to working with Judge Carpinello on this matter.

Best regards,

Jon
